A Great Day In a Remarkable Month

HERE are columns of facts, each one of present, pecuniary, vital importance. They are stated with force because they are themselves dynamic;—bluster and blow about them are as unnecessary as otherwise objectionable.

If evidence were needed of the singular advantages of August as a month for retail purchasing, it could be found below in irresistible conclusiveness. But it is merely cumulative;—the facts have already shown to your obvious satisfaction in the day-to-day news of the past two weeks. This has been a remarkable month at Wanamaker's, and this will be one of its greatest days.

Some handsome goods that have Upholstery been here since Sale Spring, and that now must make way for Fall arrivais. Lingering beauties, that should be brightening the homes of others; covers, and hangings in the prettiest effect we have had to show. The hint that they've outworn their welcome with us is given in these pricereductions-such savings as should guarantee them a cordial greeting from you: -

A Visit Among the Linens

Never without interest and profit to the particular shopper, the Linen Store to-day will be found unusually attractive now. It's a store that deals only in pure linens. There's a point to remember. And there are occasions when these high-grade linens among them, curtains and couch are offered at prices as low as, or lower than those asked elsewhere for flax-and-cotton mixtures and other inferior grades. This is just such an occasion. Reasonable prices originally, and now reduced as follows:-

> 75c. yd., 450 yds. - German, bleached, Double Damask Table Linen; 2 yds. wide; our regular $1 kind.

> $1.25 doz.-100 doz. Bleached Scotch Dinner Napkins; 22x22. Exceptionally low at $1.50. $2.50 doz .- 100 doz. Bleached Double Damask Dinner Napkins; 26x

this quality sells usually at 35c. to 45c. each. 19c. each-90 doz. Bleached Huckaback Towels; soft finish; hemmed ends; blue, red, and plain white borders; 26x45 in.; low-priced

25c. each--100 doz. German Bieached Damask Towels; 23x50 in.; knotted fringe; blue, red, pink, gold and plain white borders; usually sold at 45c.

This Is of Dress Goods

Dollar a yard goods for 25c. and 37 1/2 c. a yard! Could you spell 'Bargain' any better than that? And the best is not told in the mere saving in price, for the goods are eminently and presently useful, will be of practical value for months to come, and are choice and pretty.

Six thousand yards in the offering. A great many of the sorts and styles are precisely those that you would pick from a whole stock, even in the Fall, for school dresses. The rest are good for all wear except Mid-

At 25c. yd.—Silk-and-wool Fancy Suiting; designs principally in figured payadere silk stripes over medium and dark colored grounds; 40 designs to choose from; 42 in. wide.

At 37 \(\frac{1}{2} \) c. yd.—Silk-and-wool Check Suiting, in medium and dark colored combinations; 12 designs to choose from; 45 in. wide.

At 371/2c. yd.—Corded Poplin Velours, in welf-colors and two colored combinations; dark colorings; 13 designs to choose from: 46 in. wide.

All the above are regular dollar-a-yard goods.

Then here ere Cotton Dress Goods

At Eight Cents a Yard

Fight thousand yards of these, and all Piques, -striped and plaid, -the prettiest 30c.-a-yard goods we, or any one, can show. You will remember this chance with regret next season even if you can't see a channel for its application just now.

Fifth Floor Shoe Talk

It seems never to grow wearisome. We get new readers for it every time and hold all the old ones. What wonder when such news as this is given! There's no attraction like that of self interest, and this means money to you. The Fifth Floor Store is an acknowledged dispenser of bargains,-nothing else is permitted there. Such bargains as these, for example;---

This Is of Silks

This is by way of introduction to the new Fall silks, now arriving. As a manner of celebrating the coming of the new conquerors, we slaughter their former rivals -- the silks of the Spring. It's a merry war, and all the "!cot" is for you.

Nearly fifteen thousand yards of Spring and Summer silks dispute the succession of the Fall goods. This will dispose of them, and, with fair skies to-day and to-morrow, the newcomers will arrive on a vacant field.

This is one of the times when we advise the anticipation of needs. Although there is ample opportunity for the use of any of these goods in the immediate present. You don't get such silks at HALF PRICES every day, nor every month, nor more than once a season.

At 25c., instead of 45c. At 75c., instead of $1.25 Japanese Stripes; all silk; great variety of 30-inch Pekin Striped Taffetas, three kinds, including black and white.

At $1.25., instead of $2 and $2.50 Rich Black Satin Duchesse.

Furniture Miscellany

Third week of the Furniture Sale, and previous totals for the month have "gone a-glimmering" already.

We have been trying to give you particulars out of the vastness, by taking a few items from a certain line every day. But at that rate we will never get through,-there are 125,000 pieces to be told about. So this morning we go a little further, detailing a miscellaneous kind of richness that ought to make good reading, in spite of its severe brevity.

Morris Chairs, Music Cabinets, Rocking Chairs, Bookcases, Sideboards:-there's a list! And never were good pieces cheaper. The Morris Chair, for example, that is now offered complete at $5-cushions and all—is the same for which in ordinary times we ask $6 for cushions alone. The Music Cabinets are 100 in number, and they cannot be duplicated at these prices. Take these, or pay more.
